Introduction:

In this course students learn about various aspects of tourism, as studied through the cultural anthropological perspectives. Students will learn about the major theories and will be more aware of the socio-cultural dimensions of social policy, cultural development, heritage preservation, community involvement and self-identity construction through the studies of tourism in anthropology. With the assigned readings, students are also introduced to famous examples of different types of tourist destinations in order to gain an appreciation of the wide range of socio-cultural changes related to tourism developmental challenges around the world.

Learning outcomes:

1. Students will learn major theories with examples of various tourism development around the world and will be able to critically identify the different factors brought by tourism development.
2. Students will be guided in examining changing cultural values in different countries by re-thinking tourism activities such as theme parks, foodways, religious pilgrimage and traditional rituals; students will become more conscious of aspects of leisure activities in the forms of travel that they take for granted.
3. Students will learn about different local lifestyles and their interaction with the changing living environment as well as impacts brought by tourism, and to develop an understanding of the role of tradition and globalization.
4. After the course, students will appreciate the diversity of culture related to tourism development, and the processes that mold and shape cultural identity.
5. Students will also learn skills in research design, cultural data collection, communication, and presentation of results.
